Headline:
Dry with long spells of strong sunshine. Coastal sea-breeze developing.

Today:
Any remaining early low cloud soon clearing southern coastal districts to leave a generally fine and very warm day, with light winds and large amounts of strong sunshine. Maximum temperature 25 deg C (77 deg F).

Tonight:
Mostly sunny this evening and then dry and clear overnight with light winds. This may allow some patchy mist and fog to form in rural areas. Minimum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Sunday:
Any initial mist or fog quickly clears. Then dry and largely sunny, and becoming very warm for many places. However, coastal locations will be slightly cooler as light sea-breezes develop. Maximum temperature 27 deg C (81 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Mainly dry and sunny each day with light winds and sea-breezes. However, Wednesday there is an increasing chance of thunderstorms. Generally warm or very warm, but locally hot on Monday.
